I declare that I am aware of the fact that, being a tax resident of the Czech Republic I am liable to tax in the Czech Republic as regards my income derived from the sources in the Czech Republic as well as derived from the sources abroad. I further declare that I am not aware of any fact that could lead a foreign country (having in effect an international treaty on the avoidance of double taxation with the Czech Republic) to consider myself as its own tax resident. Should there be subsequent changes affecting any of my above given statements, I am obliged to report them in due course to my Czech tax administrator. Should there be changes in facts based on which the certificate was issued the certificate cannot be used.

The issued certificate: ²

- will be collected personally by myself (enter your contact telephone number):.....
- shall be sent to my residence address (or to a different address – please specify)
.....
- shall be sent electronically to the data box (enter ID of the data box)

Date and place where the request was submitted:

Signature of the applicant:.....

The issuance of the certificate is subject to a fee in accordance with the Czech Law no. 634/2004 Coll., on Administrative Fees, as amended. Each tax period is considered separately for the purpose of tax residency. As a result, more than one certificate is issued if the request relates to more than one tax period. Likewise, multiple requests relating to the same tax period are considered separately. The administrative fee of CZK100 chargeable for the issuance of a single original certificate could be paid as follows:

- in cash at the cash desk of a Tax Office;
- by postal order through a payment service provider;
- via bank transfer from an account held by a payment service provider to the account of the relevant Tax Office;
- by QR code, through the MOJE daně portal
